

APARTMENT LEASE AGREEMENT

This Lease Agreement is entered into by and between United Mining & Salvage LLC, of Burlington, Vermont (hereinafter referred to as "Landlord") and _____ (hereinafter referred to as "Tenants").

WITNESSETH:

In consideration of the rents herein reserved and the mutual covenants contained herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. PREMISES

Landlord hereby demises and leases unto Tenants and Tenants hereby lease and take from Landlord a certain portion of property owned by Landlord. The leasehold premises occupy _____ Unit No. _____, _____, Vermont. The premises are to be used for a residential housing only, and no other use will be allowed. No more than ____ persons may occupy the apartment, or this Lease may be declared null and void by Landlord.

2. TERMS

a. To have and to hold the above described premises on a monthly basis for a term not to exceed one (1) year beginning on _____, 20____ and ending on _____, 20____.

b. A minimum of 30 days notice must be provided before the lease term ends, if the Tenant chooses to not renew. If no notice is given, by law, the lease automatically renews for an additional lease term, thus tenancy by implication. When a tenant, for a fixed term of years or for a year under a formal written lease, holds over after the expiration of the term with the consent of acquiescence of the landlord, a tenancy by implication results. The tenant holds the premises subject to all covenants and conditions of the original lease, without any stipulation or bargain to that effect. This result is a legal consequence of the condition of the parties, and does not at all depend upon the intention of the tenant.

a. Total rental for the term of this Lease will be the sum of $ _____ to be paid in equal and monthly installments. Tenants shall pay Landlord a monthly rental of _____ due on the first day of each month.

b. No rent will be refunded or prorated should Tenants decide to stay for only a portion of complete month. Furthermore, Tenants owe for a complete month should they decide to vacate premises at any time before the completion of a month.

c. Prior to assessing any penalty, Landlord shall provide written notice to Tenants of non-receipt of rent to be sent by Federal Express or Fax, giving Ten (10) days notice to cure the default. d. If all conditions of this Lease are met and Landlord and Tenant are agreeable, Tenant shall have the option to renew at the end of the lease term.

4. SECURITY DEPOSIT

Tenants have paid or shall pay Landlord the amount of $ _____ as a security deposit for the faithful performance and observance of Tenants of the terms, conditions, and provisions of the Lease Agreement at the time of this agreement. It is agreed that in the event that Tenants default with respect to any of the terms, conditions, and provisions of the Lease Agreement, including, but not limited to, the payment of rent, Landlord may use, apply, or retain the whole or any part of the security deposit to the extent required for the payment of any rent or any other sum which Landlord may be required to expend by reason to Tenants' default. Furthermore, it is understood that a portion of, or the entire amount of, the security deposit may be applied to any damages done to the premises. Under no condition is the security deposit to be applied toward the monthly rental. Security and damage deposits, and any other deposits, shall be released subject to the following provisions:

a. The rental term has elapsed, and formal and written notice of intent to vacate was received by Lessor at least (30) days prior to vacating.

b. No damage to property and equipment beyond normal wear and tear is evident.

c. The entire dwelling including range, rugs, bathroom, walls, closets, kitchen and cupboards is broom clean.

- d. All keys are returned.
- e. All debris, rubbish, and garbage are removed.
- f. Forwarding address has been left with Landlord.
- g. All utility bills are current, including heat, electricity and gas bills.
- h. If Landlord has incurred a cost for any of the above three paragraphs d, e and g, he shall be entitled to be reimbursed from the security deposit, and the balance shall be forwarded to the Tenants.

Landlord will do a walk through with Tenant at the end of the lease period and at the beginning of the lease .

5. UTILITIES

Tenants shall be responsible for payment of all utilities, including, but not limited to, electricity, telephone, heating and any other utility charges and for procuring such utility accounts in their names. Tenant will pay his/her/their share of water and sewer charges billed to the residence.

6. COVENANT OF QUIET ENJOYMENT

Landlord covenants, represents, and warrants that he has the full right and power to execute and perform this Lease Agreement and the Tenants, on payment of the rental herein and performance of all the covenants and agreements hereof, shall peaceably and quietly have, hold, and enjoy the premises and all the rights, appurtenances and privileges pertaining thereto during the lease term subject to the terms hereof.

7. REPAIRS

Landlord shall be responsible for repairs to the premises including plumbing, wiring, and interior and exterior repairs to the building except for repairs which are caused by Tenants' negligence. At the expiration of the Lease Agreement, Tenants shall surrender said premises in as good condition as received, normal wear and tear excepted. The Landlord will give the tenant a 24 hour for any repairs , , sms , phone , email , unless it is an emergency of a gas leak ,or pipe leaking .

8. FIRE AND CASUALTY

In the event the premises shall be destroyed or damaged by fire or other unavoidable casualty so that the premises shall be thereby rendered unfit for use and occupancy, then the rent paid shall be pro-rated for the month and refunded to Tenants, and the lease shall be cancelled and shall be null and void.

9. INSPECTION & RENTAL

Tenants shall permit Landlord or Landlord's agent to enter the premises at reasonable times for the purpose of inspecting the same or for making necessary repairs or showing the premises for sale or rental. Landlord may show premises for purpose of rental up to 90 days before Lease expires. Landlord will also give tenant 24 hour notice for showing of the premises via ,SMS ,Email or phone .

10. DAMAGES

Holes in the walls resulting from picture frames, book racks, plant holders, coat racks or anything that permanently breaks the sheetrock or scars the walls are the responsibility of Tenants to repair and paint to the satisfaction of Landlord.

Furthermore, any damages to carpeting, doors, windows, appliances, bathroom fixtures, floors or any other part of the leased premises are the responsibility of the Tenants to repair or replace to the Landlord's satisfaction. If Tenants do not make these repairs, Landlord will charge to Tenants the complete cost of the repairs, for all labor, time, and materials. Should these repairs or replacements exceed the security deposit, then Tenants are responsible for payment of all additional costs relating to damages.

It is the intent of this Paragraph 10 that normal wear and tear is permissible and that pictures may be hung on the walls using normal picture hooks without the Tenants incurring any liability. It is further the intent that in the event a dispute arises between the parties, the prevailing party is entitled to attorney's fees as determined by the court.

11. CLEANING

Tenants will clean apartment at the end of the Lease which will cover, walls, floors, rugs, appliances, bathroom and kitchen fixtures, hallways, etc. A reduction will be made to the security deposit for any necessary cleaning costs, and the balance, if any, will be returned to the Tenant.

12. SUBLET OR ASSIGNMENT

Tenants shall not assign or sublet said premises without the express written consent of Landlord, said express written consent not to be unreasonably withheld by Landlord.

13. HOLD HARMLESS CLAUSE

Tenants shall hold Landlord harmless from any claims or damages arising out of any act or omission of the Tenants or their invitees or any assignees or sublease arising from occupancy and use on the subject premises. Landlord shall hold Tenants harmless from any claims for damages arising out of the failure of Landlord to comply with the provisions of this Lease Agreement or of the negligence of Landlord or his agents or assigns. Landlord shall not be responsible for any damages to the personal property of the Tenants or their invitees, assigns or sublease Tenants may procure renter's insurance, fire, liability and casualty insurance in their own names.

14. COST OF ENFORCEMENT

In the event that either party shall enter into any legal action to enforce the terms hereof or for breach of this Lease Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover from the other party all costs incurred thereby, including reasonable attorney fees and court costs.

15. TRASH REMOVAL

Landlord shall be responsible for trash pickup on the property, and Tenant's rent shall include an increase for the cost of pickup. However, if Tenant would rather be responsible for his/her/their own trash pickup on the property, then Tenant may do so at his/her/their own cost. There are trash cans available for Tenant's use until disposal of trash. No trash, empty boxes or other materials or personal property are to be accumulated in the front, rear or sides of the building.

16. ALTERATIONS

Tenants shall make no alterations to the outside or inside of the leased premises without the written consent of Landlord. An alteration without written consent of the Landlord shall cause this Lease Agreement to be breached and be declared null and void. Any alterations that Landlord agrees to and that Tenants desire to make must be done to the personal satisfaction of Landlord or this Lease shall be declared breached and null and void. Furthermore, any work that Tenants desire to do must be approved in writing only by Landlord. All details of the work are to be listed specifically, a drawing made, and submitted before the work begins. All work that is undertaken by Tenants must meet state and city building, fire, electrical and plumbing codes. Tenants shall not under any circumstances commit waste.

17. NOISE

Tenants are responsible for monitoring and limiting in volume the noise level within their premises by themselves, guests and/or invitees, so as not to disturb other tenants in the building or abutting landowners and their tenants in according with the City of Burlington Noise Ordinance.

18. PETS

Pets are allowed on the premises (a $350.00 will be due when a pet is going to be living on the premises. _____).

Pets are not allowed on the premises.

Pet owners are responsible for picking up after their dogs on the premises. Per city ordinance all dog feces should be picked up. If this is not done, and this task is left to the landlord or his agent, a $200 fee will be charged. If tenant does have a pet or more than one pet a security deposit will be required at that time . 22. DAMAGES/REMEDIES

In the event of a breach of this Lease, the Landlord will notify Tenants in writing via Federal Express or Certified Mail that the breach has occurred and will give Tenants fourteen (14) days to cure said breach. If the breach is not cured within 14 days, and no work has occurred to correct the breach, then the Landlord may declare this Lease void. If the Landlord declares this Lease to be null and void because of Tenants' breach of any terms, conditions and covenants hereunder, Landlord may also recover from Tenants such damages as he has incurred or may incur during the unexpired term of the Lease, including, but not limited to, by way of example, damage to the building, costs of reletting the premises, and accelerated rental payments over the unexpired term of the Lease which are to be immediately due and owing.

Landlord may, in the event that Tenants quit, abandon or vacate the premises without Landlord's express acceptance and full release from future liability, declare all rental sums due and to be owing under this Lease to be accelerated and to immediately be due and owing in full. The remedies enumerated herein are not in derogation of any other remedy Landlord may elect to pursue for damages, whether by statute or otherwise. A declaration by the Landlord that the Lease is null and void shall not be in derogation of other remedies as set forth herein.

Lessee agrees that they shall maintain their own insurance on any personal property that they move onto the premises and shall furnish proof of insurance upon taking tenancy hereunder. The Lessor is not responsible for damage or the loss of personal belongings or valuables of the Lessee.

Lessee agrees to hold Lessor harmless from any and all claims arising within the leased premises from the negligence of the Lessee, their agents, invitees, employees or assigns. Lessor shall not be liable for loss to Lessee's personal property from fire, theft, breakage, burglary, or otherwise, or from electrical failure, water, rain, windstorm, or any act of God, or other cause whatsoever. Lessee shall insure their personal property against all such losses in an amount Lessee deems sufficient, and shall make no claims for such loss against Lessor.

If the Leased Premises, or any part thereof, shall be partially damaged by fire or other casualty not due to the Lessee's negligent or willful act or that of their employee, family, agent or invitee, the premises shall be promptly repaired by the Lessor and there shall be an abatement of rent corresponding with the time during which, and to the extent that, the leased premises may have been uninhabitable. Lessor shall not be responsible for Lessee's accommodations or any costs associated with relocation during the pendency of any repairs made subject to this Paragraph. Notwithstanding the forgoing, if the leased premises should be damaged other than by Lessee's negligent or willful act or that of their employee, family, agent or invitee, to the extent that Lessor should decide, in its sole discretion, not to rebuild or repair, the term of this Lease shall end and the rent shall be prorated up to the time of damage.
